

Premier Sports Group International Inc
Terms and Conditions for Traveling Persons:

Traveling Persons and / or Parental Consent:

Receipt of all final payments confirms that each traveling member understands the following policies in regards to liability, medical expenses, medical attention, personal property, and refunds. Each person is required to sign and return this form to PSG Sports Inc prior to traveling with PSG Sports.

I hereby authorize Premier Sports Group International Inc and its staff to act for me according to the best judgment in a medical emergency requiring attention. I hereby waive and release Premier Sports Group International Inc and its staff from all liability for injuries occurred on the tour. I understand that participation in soccer and traveling on a tour overseas carries a risk of injury. All medical expenses will be the responsibility of the individual person / and or parents of the individual traveling. Premier Sports Group International strongly advises all individuals and their responsibilities on safety and personal belongings while traveling overseas. The company is not responsible for items that are lost, stolen or damaged while on the tour. I understand and accept that Premier Sports Group International Inc retains the right to use photographs, video tape and motion pictures of the tour for publicity for advertisement or any legitimate purpose.

All deposits are non-refundable. All payments are non refundable. However, there have been isolated situations in the cases of serious injury prior to departure of the tour. This being the case the company will work to refund a 75% of the payments received on the understanding this is before 31 days prior to the departure date. All requests for refunds under these circumstances should be submitted in writing to Premier Sports Group International Inc received at least 31 days prior to the departure date. The letter should be supported by documentation (such as a doctors letter) to validate the request for refund.

I understand and accept the Premier Sports Group International Inc policies.
